Tried & True Comfort, Affirmation & Wisdom

By Jacki Perrette

I ran across these little Elf-Help books years ago. The simple wisdom given in pithy one or two sentence bites, got me through some tough times. I took the books walking with me. I would read a page, then walk and reflect on the thought as I went. Now, all these years later, the thoughts come to mind just when I need them. This one by Cherry Hartman is probably my favorite, but I love them all. I give them to others from time to time if I think they would be helpful.

You need to have this book!

By A. G. Buffington

I first heard about this book when I received it as a gift in college over 10 years ago. I still have it and still refer to it now and then for its wonderful and simple gems of wisdom. It's a great little book to have for yourself and would make a great pick-me-up for a friend going through a hard time. Its message is simply to listen to your heart and take care of your needs. The little elf illustrations are very poignant and marry well with the text as an encouragement for your soul. I would recommend this and any of the Elf Help books to anyone!
