Looking is most important AND then knowing what to look for and what to look at. I would use this book to learn how to look.

By Dr. Judie

What makes a work of art a work of art requires looking, questioning, opening one's mind and expressing. This book does that.

LOVE THIS!!!!

By Gary Dufner

If you are an artist trying to get to the next level and using concepts READ THIS BOOK!!!! It will help you think about how to make your art better by reading how these artist did their work. I was really intrigued by the critiques of Manet's "bar at the folies-bergere" and what is really going on in that piece. Worth it just for that bit.

Great Book

By Mazin S. Mohammed

this book gives you a great detail on how to interpret art. I learned so much from it, and now, I feel like I can relate to all types of art. I never got tired of reading it, and I even loved the pictures being detailed and interpreted in there.
