The six Herdman children are "absolutely the worst kids in the history of the world". They lie and steal and smoke cigars. They even burned down Fred Shoemaker's old toolhouse. Now they're taking over the Christmas pageant.

The Herdmans have never heard the Christmas story before, and they don't know anything about shepherds or Wise Men. When Imogene hears about the swaddling clothes, she demands to know why anyone would tie up a baby and put him in a feedbox. Leroy, Claude, and Ollie are planning on a gift that means much more than gold, frankincense, and myrrh - the ham from their Christmas basket.

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, now also a television movie, has been a favorite of children and their parents since 1972. As C.J. Critt's spirited narration captures the lively and outrageous spin that the Herdmans put on the Nativity scene, listeners will delight in this unusual and refreshing interpretation of Christmas.

A fun, silly, and serious Christmas story

By A Customer

Told in the first person by a pageant participant, this book chronicles the cataclysmic events that take place when the yearly nativity play is hijacked by the worst children that ever existed.

It can be read on several levels. Children and adults alike will be unable to stop laughing as disaster builds upon disaster. However, those who are so inclined will also find themselves reflecting on the meaning of the story of the birth of Jesus.

Hysterical, honest, and sometimes very touching, the story is aimed at ages 7 - 10, but is very suitable for reading aloud and in that way could be enjoyed by all ages.
