WAITING FOR WINTER BY L.B. GREGG PDF

Some mistakes are worth repeating.

Luke always thought he and Winter were the perfect couple - until the day Winter announced he was taking a new job and they were uprooting and heading for Germany. No discussion. No debate. For the first time in his life, Winter miscalculated. Badly. Now Luke is trying his best to move on with his life, but Winter is back in town and he's set on digging their relationship out of the deep freeze.

Part of the Comfort and Joy anthology.

By Hearts On Fire Reviews

Winter and Luke have been a couple for years, living in New York while Winter's job took him up and down the East Coast. When he unexpectedly announces one Christmas they are moving, in two weeks, to Berlin for a job without once consulting Luke, well, that was the end of that. You can only be so self-centered before you lose something important. And he did.

Even when he meets up with Luke after six months, he isn't apologetic or seemingly willing to change. So things don't go well. Luke's got holes in his life that Winter used to fill, now what does he do?

While I loved Luke, felt for him and cheered for him right from the start, Winter was not such a win for me. He is supposed to be commanding, I think, but he just came across as selfish for so much of this novella. He was redeemed some by his actions and I'm going to be very hopeful that he's learned a lesson. I'd like to think he has.

Just as an aside - I reread this and the second reading, I loved it. The effort on Winter's part hit me so much more the second time.

Wonderful Christmas story!

By KC

Loved this story so much! Angsty yet sweet and very very romantic, especially the Christmas morning scene. Highly recommended!

I was annoyed that Lu gave in so easily - then ran ...

By sue

Both characters start at opposite sides, and major changes happen without clear reasons. Winter shows back up, with no explanation or apology, expecting Lu to just forget everything that happened and jump into bed. I was annoyed that Lu gave in so easily - then ran away! And we don't learn how that worked out. Jump ahead to Christmas, and a contrived meeting that ends with everything settled with no real effort or feeling of connection that will keep them together in the future. Not one I will be rereading.
